Rejoice, Pray, Give Thanks

St. Paul says, "This is the will of God for you" "Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks" (1 Thes. 5:16-17). The verses are from this Sunday's second reading.

This summer I read a book about a man who took Paul at his word, and he made it his life's goal to pray always. The book, Way of a Pilgrim, is a simple yet profound book. It was written by a Russian pilgrim in the 19th century. If you have ever heard of the Jesus Prayer, this is the prayer which the author discovers. And he helps the reader appreciate the beauty of the prayer: Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me.

As you think about Christmas gifts, here are some other books that I have found to be good for the soul. Immaculée Ilibagiza who survived the Rwandan holocaust has written several books about her experience and faith: Left to Tell and Led by Faith are both inspiring books. She is a powerful Catholic witness. Her books will encourage you to live your faith, especially if you find yourself in darkness.

Several years ago, I read the book The Catholic Martyrs of the Twentieth Century by Robert Royal. It is a 400 page work which describes the witness of Catholics and Christians from every continent. Many of the stories are unknown. For example, he chronicles the stories of people from Lithuania in eastern Europe whom I had never heard about, yet their witness is as powerful as any of the known martyrs.

The book God's Passionate Desire and Our Response by William Barry, SJ is a series of articles which are helpful for anyone who wants to grow in their relationship with God. His writing style includes stories to illuminate what he teaches.

Recently, I read The Help. It was made into a movie. It is not a specifically spiritual book. However, it is an excellent piece of literature. It will make you think about how you treat the people around you, and parents will be challenged to consider what values they are passing on to their children.

Good reading is essential for our mental health. I find that I need to keep reading about the spiritual life. Otherwise, my prayer life stagnates. As you consider New Year's resolutions, you might think of including a good spiritual book to help you begin the year.

Peace in Christ, Fr. Steve

OLBH Parish News

Children's Christmas Videos available at Library

Thirteen Christmas videos are ready for children to checkout from the OLBH Library. There is a good variety from animation of classics like the Little Drummer Boy to live drama of the Paulist Production of a French tale about The Juggler of Notre Dame. One particular favorite will be Nicholas: The Boy Who Became Santa. These vary in length from 30 to 50 minutes. Some are brief stories aimed at the youngest children while others would be enjoyed by the whole family.

OLBH Young Adults Snowshoe / Cross Country Ski Trip

All OLBH young adults are invited to go snowshoeing or cross country skiing on Friday, December 23rd. Any college students that will be home for Christmas are encouraged to join us. We'd love to get to see you again while you are home. We will be leaving OLBH at 11:00 am and driving to our destination. Game Fish & Parks had day use snowshoes for free. If you would like to come along, Please sign up in the gathering area, or call the parish office at 787-5168 Let's go have fun in the snow!!!

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass

Adult Life will be hosting a 5 part series study. The dates are: January 22nd, 29th, February 5th & 19th. If you've ever wondered why we say what we say and do what we do during the Liturgy, this is the study for you! You will go deep into the Scriptural roots of the Mass, and see the beauty and riches unfold before your eyes like never before. This study is based on the new translation of the Mass. All adults are welcome to join us during Adult Life for the study. If you would like to join, I will be placing a bulk order of materials to save money. PLEASE sign-up in the gathering area by Sunday November 27th.

High School Mission Trip

I am very excited to announce that OLBH is organizing a Mission Trip for the High School Youth (incoming 9th graders as of 2012) in our diocese, this summer to Denver, Colorado. Registration forms are in the gathering area with fee and payment schedule and will soon be on our website at olbh.org. As usual, we will fundraise to try to pay for half of the fee. We will be having a meeting once registrations are collected at the end of January. Please contact me if you have any questions. Don't miss out! ~ Teresa Thompson

Meals Program Ice Sculptures

The Meals Program (Meals on Wheels) will be holding an Ice Sculpture on Main Street Square on Saturday, January 7, 2012 from 9 am to 9 pm. Randy Finch from Food network's own Ice Brigade will be here to carve ice and to sign autographs. This event is open to the public and will be a free will donation. We are in need of sponsors for the ice sculptures. We are also looking for local talented individuals that would like to show off their ice sculpting talents and help the Meals Program make this an annual event. Randy will also be teaching a class during this week that will teach individuals how to carve ice for a fee. We would like to hold a chili cook-off and need individuals to participate with their chili. Please contact Marcia Mayer at 605-394-6002x15 or Marciamayer@rushmore.com for additional information.

OLBH Buildings and Grounds Report

The buildings & grounds committee of OLBH had a meeting in November and here is a report from that meeting:

1. Marty Quinn will paint the front doors of the church this Spring
2. Eric Haakedahl and Bill Honerkamp are looking into light screening for the windows above the altar in order to cut the glare or direct sunshine.
3. Bob Kraft will look into lighting for the two rooms off the kitchen in St. Joseph's Hall
4. St. Thomas More students will come help us paint the dining hall this spring as a thank you / service project.
5. Frank Boner, Eric Haakedahl and Marty Quinn will look into new flooring for the sacristy where the tile is cracked.
6. Frank Boner will be fixing out large wooden cross for the gathering area.
7. Marty Quinn will be fixing a few cracks in sheetrock at the front of the church.
8. Look into new floor covering for 1 bedroom in the rectory.

Third Week of Advent: JOY

Hot pink, pale pink, rose pink are all shades of pink painted into a sunrise. Like the various shades of pink, our expressions of joy can be so different. Joy can be exuberant when we experience the faithfulness of God, it can be calm confidence in His sovereignty, or pure delight as He expresses His love.

Joy has many shades. It should never be determined by how we feel, but on who God is. The joy of the Lord can thrill us or make us resolute in the secure knowledge of God's presence. Paul tells us in 1 Thessalonians 5:16 to be joyful always. Jesus tells us "With God all things are possible." (Mark 9:24) This combination of truth should help us be joyful each day.

For the Ride Home

By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- ❖ he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, (Isaiah 61:1))
- ❖ He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty (Luke 1:53,54))
- ❖ Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks,. (1 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18)
- ❖ I baptize with water; but there is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie." (John 1:26,27)

Reflection

- ❖ Why does Jesus enter the world?
- ❖ How does Jesus change the world through the actions of His followers?
- ❖ How do you change the world a little bit at a time?
- ❖ What parish ministry is making a difference in the lives it touches?
- ❖ What encourages you and sustains you? What makes you happy?

Nothing is more practical than finding God, that is, than falling in Love in a quite absolute, final, way. What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything. It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you will do with your evenings, how you will spend your weekends, what you read, who you know, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in love, stay in love, and it will decide everything. ¹

"It is an essential part of our work as Catholics to build a more just society and economy. We feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, educate the young, welcome refugees and care for the sick and vulnerable. Our Church serves and stands in solidarity with those who are poor and jobless, helping them break the cycle of poverty and act on behalf of their own families and communities."
